

Bridge on The River Kwai & Elephant Riding & Bamboo Rafting & Waterfall

HIGHLIGHT

- Learn about the history of the railway's construction by Allied prisoners of war
- Visit the JEATH War Museum and see artifacts from the railway's terrible history.

EXCLUSION

- Drink
- Tips
- Jeath war museum 50 Baht per person
- Train 100 Baht per person

INCLUSION

- Transfers from/to hotels (major hotel in Bangkok only)
- English speaking guide
- Insurance
- Lunch
- Waterfall Ticket
- Elephant riding
- Bamboo Rafting

FULL DAY

- 07.00 AM Pick up time
- 07.30 AM Departure from Bangkok to River Kwai (2 hours)
- 09.15 AM Arrive at the River Kwai and visit to Cemetery of the allied prisoners of second world war
- 10.00 AM Visit the Jeath Museum (Admission fee pay 50 Baht per person)
- 10.30 AM Visit Bridge over the river Kwai
- 11.00 AM Leaving from Bridge go to train station (Admission fee pay 100 Baht per person)
- 11.45 AM Leaving from the train station and traveling by train to see a long the death railway dangerous curving bridge which is built of wooden log along the mountain side constructed by the allied prisoners of the second world war
- 13.20 PM Lunch at the restaurant is thai food will be served.
- 13.45 PM Transfer to Elephant Riding and Bamboo Rafting
- 15.00 PM Arrive at the Waterfall Sai York Noi free time for personal leisure.
- 15.30 PM Departure from Waterfall Sai York Noi free time for personal leisure.
- 19.30 PM Arrive to Bangkok drop in Khao san road

Recommended

NON REFUND

(Tour Rate in Thai Baht)

Adult	THB 1,050
-------	-----------

13.726193, 100.585385

REMARK

- Itinerary tour subject to change without notice
- Return back to Bangkok drop in Khao san road

- Non-refundable

tgl.ink/tha-pkg04